Requesting an I-20

International students will receive an email invitation to request an I-20 from the International Students and Scholars Office (ISSO).

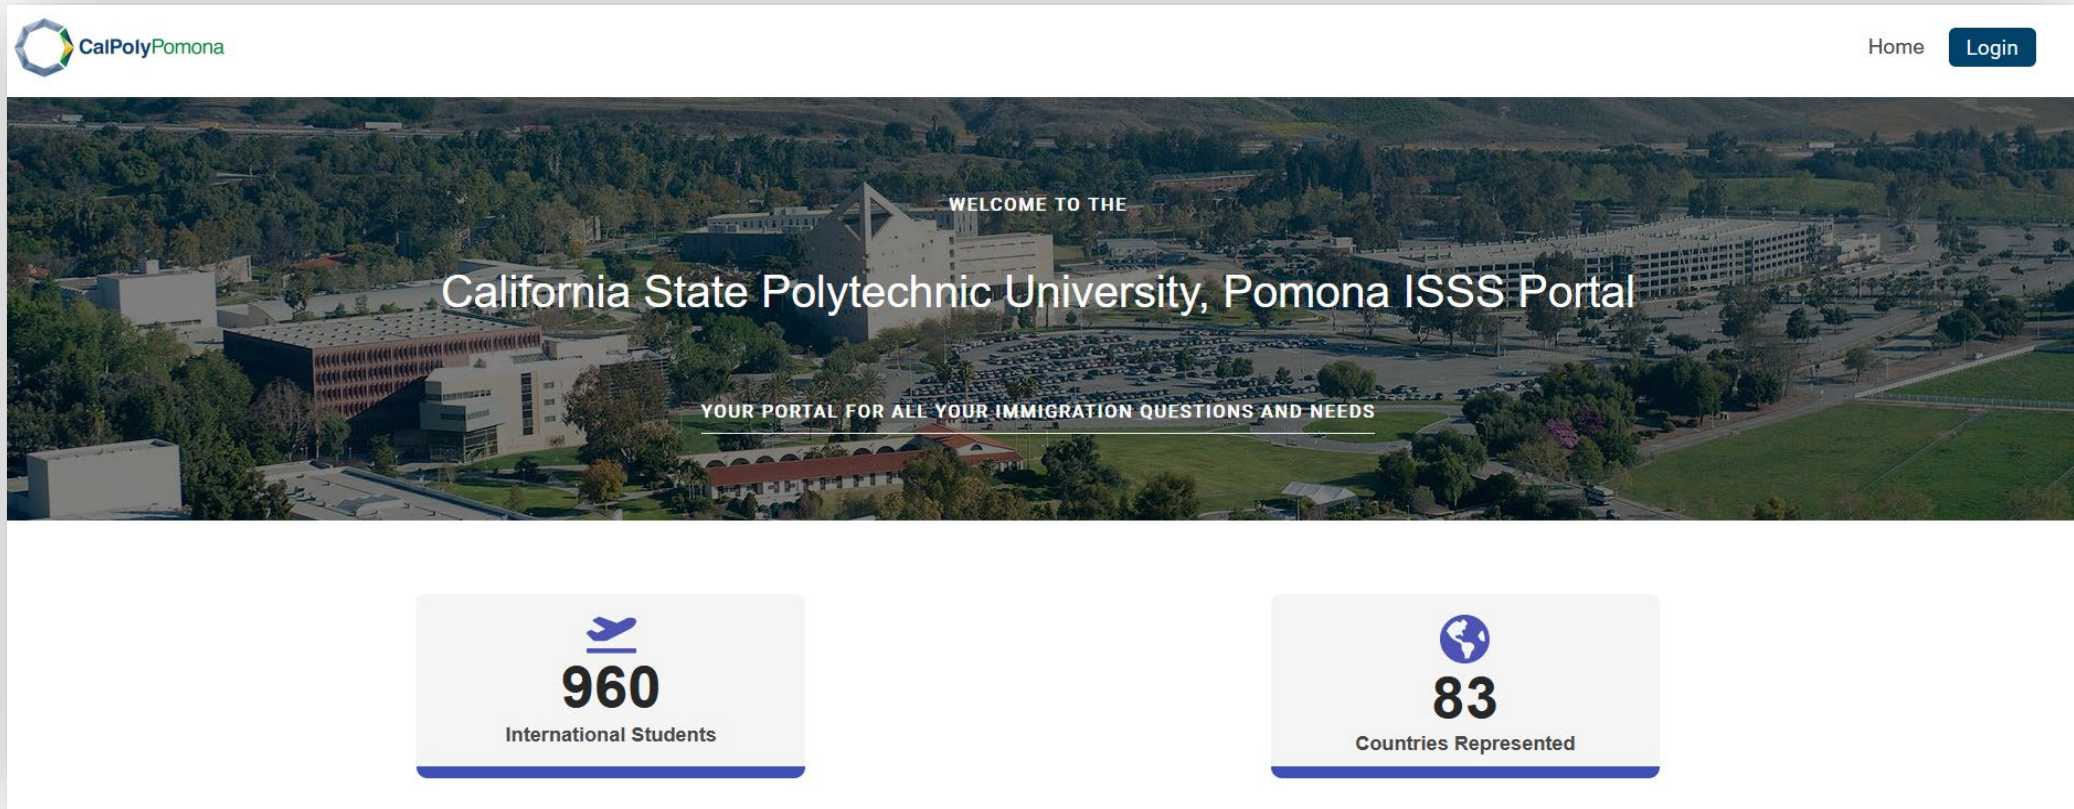

Please check your CPP email address.

Be mindful of the visa appointment availability with the US Embassy when requesting an I-20

Login to the ISSO Portal with CPP Credentials

I-20 Online Form

Answer questions, upload all necessary documents and submit for processing

The screenshot displays the 'Student Visa Status' tab of the I-20 Online Form. The interface includes a progress bar at the top with five steps: 1 Welcome, 2 Student Visa Status (current), 3 Personal & Program, 4 Financial Details, and 5 Completed. The main content area features a large image on the left with the Cal Poly Pomona logo and a globe. To the right of the image, there is a text prompt: 'The ISSO needs to know if you are currently in the US on an F-1 Visa or not. Please answer the following question(s) below.' Below this, there are three sections of instructions:

- If you are applying for an F1 Visa outside the US
 - Select No
 - Click SAVE and go to the next tab.
- If you are a transfer student
 - Select Yes
 - Answer the next question - Yes
 - Click the Transfer-in blue button
 - Upload your documents
 - Click SAVE and go to the next tab
- If you are applying for a Change of Status
 - Select Yes
 - Answer the next question- No
 - Click the Change of Status blue button
 - Upload your documents
 - Click SAVE and go to the next tab

An email notification will be sent to your CPP email address once your I-20 is ready.
