

SUBMISSION

Abstract submissions are now open to students, researchers, academic, and industry professionals.

Abstract submission instructions:

Title: clear and reflecting on the topics of the symposium.

Introduction: background related to the study.

Objectives: clear aim of the study.

Methods: methodologies used for data collections.

Results: main findings of the study.

Conclusion: the significance of the study findings and future direction.

Length: abstract should not be more than 350 words.

Diverse topics are considered for the poster presentation including:

Food processing and engineering technologies.

Extrusion technology.

Formulations and new ingredients.

Plant-based alternatives, meat, dairy and egg products.

Flavors and clean label.

Innovations in plant-based foods.

Nutritional benefits of plant-based foods.

Nutritional value, bioavailability and bioaccessibility.

Environmental impact.

Sustainable agriculture practice.

Consumer behavior and market trends.

Safety and quality control for plant-based foods.

Culinary applications of plant-based alternatives.

Public policies and regulations.

Cultural influences on plant-based diet adoption.

Supply chain management in the plant-based food industry.

Effective marketing strategies.

Abstracts to be submitted to plantbased@cpp.edu before Oct. 15, 2024