Ahimsa Center Presents
The Power of One
A Dialogue with
Jaya Row

Monday, May 18, 2009; 4:00-6:00 p.m.
Bronco Student Center, Centaurus

Jaya Row is the founder of Vedanta Vision and Managing Trustee of Vedanta Trust. Vedanta Vision is dedicated to the promotion of Vedanta, a school of Indian philosophy and the oldest management school in the world. Vedanta is a science of living that empowers each individual to achieve success, happiness, growth and fulfillment. Jaya Row has spent nearly thirty years in the study and research of Vedanta. Microbiologist by training, She has had a distinguished management career, which she renounced to devote herself full time to the interpretation and re-presentation of Vedanta for the modern generation. Mrs. Row has helped change people's concept of Indian scriptures from that of obsolete texts of bygone ages only to be revered, to that of a living, vibrant option for success, happiness and personal growth. She is the author of many books and has given public lectures around the world.

Event is free. Refreshments Provided. RSVP by May 15.
