Savita and Manilal Mehta Public Lecture

Building Global Peace in the Nuclear Age

by

David Krieger, Ph. D.

Sunday, November 12, 2006

Lecture 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. • Reception 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Cal Poly Pomona Bronco Student Center, Ursa Minor Room

Dr. Krieger will share his experiences that led him to make a life-long commitment to work toward a more peaceful world. His experiences included early visits to the Hiroshima and Nagasaki Peace Memorial Museums, fighting against US involvement in the Vietnam war as a young army officer, and participating in Robert Hutchins' Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions. He will present the case to eliminate nuclear weapons before they eliminate us, and talk about what each of us can do to help prevent future Hiroshimas and Nagasakis. He will also share some of his poems from his latest and forthcoming books.

DAVID KRIEGER is the founder of the Nuclear Age Peace Foundation, and has served as President of the Foundation since 1982. Under his leadership the Foundation has initiated many innovative and important projects for building peace, strengthening international law and abolishing nuclear weapons.

Dr. Krieger has received many honors and awards such as the ECOMIR Peace and Environmental Prize of the Russian Academy of Natural Sciences (2006); Global Green's Millennium Award for International Environmental Leadership (2005); Peace Writing Award of the Peace and Justice Studies Association and OMNI Center for Peace, Justice and Ecology (2005); the Peace Educator of the Year Award of the Consortium of Peace Research, Education and Development (2001); the Soka Gakkai Hiroshima Peace Award (2000); the Soka Gakkai International Peace and Culture Award (1997); and the Bronze Medal of the Hungarian Engineers for Peace (1995).

Dr. Krieger is the author/editor of many books on peace in the Nuclear Age including Hold Hope, Wage Peace; Einstein—Peace Now!; Today Is Not a Good Day for War (Poetry); Peace:100 Ideas; Hope in a Dark Time, Reflections on Humanity's Future; The Poetry of Peace; Choose Hope, Your Role in Waging Peace in the Nuclear Age; Ideas for Action; Waging Peace II, Vision and Hope for the 21st Century; The Tides of Change: Peace, Pollution and Potential of the Oceans, and Tears from the Night Sky (Poetry).
