

A H I M S A C E N T E R
NONVIOLENCE IN THOUGHT AND ACTION

California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, CA 91768

Nonviolent Conflict Transformation: The TRANSCEND Approach

One-Day Workshop with Professor Johan Galtung

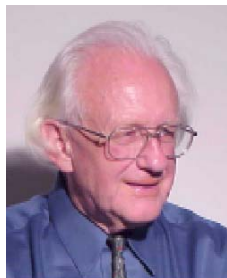

Tuesday, November 23, 2004, 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The Heritage Conference Center, Building 98(CLA Tower), 8th Floor

Workshop Description: Conflicts are rarely “resolved” completely in a sense that they disappear. However, they can be transformed through nonviolent means leading to desirable change. The focus of this workshop is on such nonviolent resolution and transformation of conflicts at personal, inter-personal, group and international levels. Workshop format will be highly interactive and include short lectures, facilitated discussions, and small group exercises. Participants will—

- Learn the methods and applications of conflict analysis.
- Acquire skills to discriminate between individual, cultural and structural types of violence and their roots.
- Explore the use of dialog and negotiation process for conflict resolution.
- Understand the creative power of compassion and nonviolence in transforming conflicts.
- Gain insights about the role of healing and reconciliation for transcending conflicts.

This workshop will be valuable for college faculty and students, school teachers, business and community leaders, peace workers, mediators and other professionals who are interested in the nonviolent transformation of conflicts.

JOHAN GALTUNG is regarded as the founder of the academic discipline of Peace Studies. He established the International Peace Research Institute, Oslo in 1959, and launched the Journal of Peace Research in 1964. In 1993 he founded TRANSCEND, a peace and development network.

His major publications include Gandhi's Political Ethics (1955), Essays in Peace Research and Methodology (1974-88), The True Worlds (1980), There Are Alternatives (1984), The Way is the Goal: Gandhi Today (1992|1998), Human Rights in Another Key (1994), Peace by Peaceful Means (1996), Conflict Transformation by Peaceful Means (2000), Searching for Peace: the Road to TRANSCEND (2002), and Transcend and Transform (2004).

Professor Galtung is the recipient of numerous honors and awards including the Right Livelihood Award (the "Alternative Nobel Prize"), and the Jannalal Bajaj International Award for Promoting Gandhian values outside India. He has served as a consultant to several UN agencies and has played an active role in helping mediate in over 50 major conflicts around the world over the past four decades.

Workshop Fee (includes lunch and refreshments)

If Received by November 1: General: $100, Students: $75, K-12 Educators: $75.

If Received by November 15: General: $120, Students: $85, K-12 Educators: $85.

After November 15: All Registrants: $150.

Limited number of scholarships may be available on a need basis. Inquiries may be directed to:

Professor Tara Sethia, Director, Ahimsa Center at tsethia@csupomona.edu or (909) 869 3868.

Registration Form

Nonviolent Conflict Transformation: The TRANSCEND Approach

One-Day Workshop with Professor Johan Galtung

Tuesday, November 23, 2004, 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
The Heritage Conference Center, Building 98(CLA Tower), 8th Floor

Sponsored by

The Ahimsa Center, College of Letters, Arts and Social Sciences
California State Polytechnic University, Pomona

Name:

Title/Profession:

Organization/Institution:

Mailing Address:

Email:

Telephone Number:

Workshop Fee (Please circle the appropriate amount)

If Received by November 1: General: $100 College Students: $75 K-12 Educators: $75.

If Received by November 15: General: $120 College Students: $85 K-12 Educators: $85.

If Received after November 15: All Registrants: $150.

Make checks payable to: "Cal Poly Pomona Foundation: Ahimsa Center." (Please do not send cash)

Mail completed registration form for each registrant along with the check to:

Professor Tara Sethia
History Department
Cal Poly Pomona
3801 West Temple Avenue,
Pomona CA 91768

Limited number of scholarships may be available on a need basis. Send inquiry to tsethia@csupomona.edu or call (909) 869 3868. Requests will be considered on a first come first serve basis.

Directions and updates will be posted at www.csupomona.edu/ahimsacenter