Program Learning Outcome	Student Learning Outcome
PO #1: Students completing the BSBA program with the Computer Information Systems Option will demonstrate knowledge and skills of fundamental CIS principles and deal with business problems and decision making from an integrative perspective.	SLO 1a: CIS students will be able to explain the concepts and basic terminology commonly used in the CIS discipline.(PLO 1)
	SLO 1b: CIS students will be able to identify, analyze and solve business-computing problems using knowledge and skills in the CIS discipline. (PLO1)
PO #2: Students completing the BSBA program with the Computer Information Systems Option will use critical thinking, computing and analytical skills to solve business problems and make business decisions.	SLO 2a: CIS students will be able to identify key business computing issues, and explain the role of CIS in a firm. (PLO 2)
	SLO 2b: CIS students will be able to solve business-computing problems using appropriate quantitative and qualitative skills. (PLO 2)
PO #3: Students completing the BSBA program with the Computer Information Systems Option will demonstrate awareness of the ethical and global aspects and practices of the business computing and decision-making.	SLO 3a: CIS students will be able to identify and explain key aspects of ethical issues in business computing and decision-making. (PLO 3)
	SLO 3b: CIS students will be able to identify and explain key aspects of global issues in business computing and decision-making.(PLO 3)
PO #4: Students completing the BSBA program with the Computer Information Systems (CIS) Option will communicate effectively in a business environment.	SLO 4a: CIS students will be able to effectively communicate orally by delivering a quality multi-media presentation, for a wide variety of audiences, either individually or as part of a group. (PLO 4)
	SLO 4b: CIS students will be able to write clearly and effectively by delivering a quality report or document, for a wide variety of audiences, either individually or as part of a group. (PLO 4)

PO #5: Students completing the BSBA program with the Computer Information Systems (CIS) Option will practice professional development in CIS discipline.	SLO 5a: CIS students will be able to develop continuous process of acquiring new knowledge and skills that relate to CIS profession, job responsibilities, or work environment. (PLO 5)