Letter From The Executive Director

Greetings CPP Resident,

On behalf of the University Housing Services (UHS) team, I am so excited to welcome you to on-campus housing at Cal Poly Pomona. UHS's mission is to provide a learning-centered environment that enhances:

- A safe and welcoming community
- Opportunities for growth, leadership, and student success
- Appreciation and empowerment for all backgrounds, beliefs, and cultures

We are committed to upholding our mission through action; providing our residents with a well-maintained living and learning environment that supports academic success and personal growth and development. We also strive to create communities where residents truly feel valued, safe, and appreciated.

As executive director, I encourage you to get to know the teams that are working in your community. The resident advisors, event leads, business services student leaders, area coordinators, and facilities maintenance and custodial workers are likely to be important connections in your on-campus housing experience. Additionally, get involved with the Resident Student Association (RSA), our on-campus housing student programming and advocacy organization.

Please enjoy the year and let us know how we can help make the on-campus housing community your home. We want to ensure each of you know that you are welcome and valued. In UHS, we believe students come first. You are the reason we are here!

Sincerely, and go Broncos!

Jon B. Merchant
Executive Director,
University Housing Services

Mission, Vision, & Values

Cal Poly Pomona is among the best public universities in the West and is nationally ranked for helping students achieve economic success. As an inclusive polytechnic university, we cultivate success through experiential learning, discovery and innovation. Our graduates are ready to succeed in the professional world on Day 1. Faculty in all disciplines put theory to practice, providing students with opportunities to apply their knowledge in hands-on projects, research collaborations, and valuable internship and service-learning programs.

UHS Mission Statement

In collaboration with our residents and staff, we seek to provide a learning-centered environment that enhances:

- A safe and welcoming community
- Opportunities for growth, leadership, and student success
- Appreciation and empowerment for all backgrounds, beliefs and cultures

CPP MISSION STATEMENT

We cultivate success through a diverse culture of experiential learning, discovery, and innovation.

CPP VISION STATEMENT

Cal Poly Pomona will be the model for an inclusive polytechnic university that inspires creativity and innovation, embraces local and global challenges, and transforms lives.

UHS Residential Community Standards

Mission:

In collaboration with our residents and staff, we seek to provide a learning-centered environment that enhances:

- A safe and welcoming community
- Opportunities for growth, leadership, and student success
- Appreciation and empowerment for all backgrounds, beliefs and cultures

We thank you for choosing to be part of our residential community. We are so excited that you are here! Residence Life is dedicated to cultivating an inclusive residential environment that fosters a sense of belonging, academic success, and personal development.

All residents are expected to know and follow University Housing Services Community Standards found in your License Agreement and the University's Student Code of Conduct.

University Housing's conduct system is designed to foster an atmosphere that promotes learning and behaviors that support education while safeguarding the university community from actions detrimental to the learning environment.

Your involvement and contribution to the UHS Bronco Community is vital in fostering a vibrant community. We rely on our students to help build robust social connections, act as proactive members of our community, and uphold our community standards.

How Do I Report Potential Policy Violation?

If you've observed an incident that you believe breaches CPP's Housing and/or University Conduct Policies, it's your responsibility to report it to UHS staff members. You can report policy violations to any of the following contacts:

IN AN EMERGENCY SITUATION:

CPP University Police: (909) 869-3070

IN A NON-EMERGENCY SITUATION:

Any Residence Life Staff Member:

- Resident Advisor
- Area Coordinator
- Residence Life Intern

Find your community contact information here:

University Housing Main Office:

(909) 869-3307 or by emailing us at housing@cpp.edu

Thank you for being an integral part of our community.

Housing Portal

The Housing Portal is the main hub for all UHS residents. The portal provides a seamless method for viewing, maintaining, and updating resident information.

In addition you can:

- View your room assignment and roommates
- Message your roommates
- See your mailing address
- Update UHS Emergency Contact Information
- Submit work orders
- View/ apply for job opportunities
- Access our Weekly Newsletter
- ...and more!

Throughout the academic year UHS will open specific requests that can be changed through the Housing Portal. These requests include:

- Meal Plan Changes
- Room Changes

Campus Resources

Bronco Care Center

The Cal Poly Pomona Broncos Care Program is a comprehensive campus-wide Basic Needs' initiative that serves students experiencing housing instability, food insecurity, and other emergency/crisis situations.

The program goals are to provide students in need with

- Food resources
- Housing support
- Emergency funds
- Case-management support

All of these areas play a critical role in a student's academic success, health, and wellbeing. This is a campus-wide prevention and early intervention program hosted by the Division of Student Affairs.

Keys

You will receive one (1) hard key (physical key). This key gives you access to the building and your room assignment.

Lost Or Stolen Keys

For security reasons any lost or misplaced key(s) must be reported to the La Cienega Housing Office, located in building 59 within 24 hours. Lost keys will result in a lockset change and a new key will be issued for all roommates. A charge of $80.00 will be assessed for a lost room key and subsequent lockset change.

If your key is stolen, please report it as the to UPD. Once reported, contact the La Cienega Housing Office, located in building 59 within in 24 hours. This will result in a lockset change and a new key will be issued for all roommates for security reasons.

Lock Outs

If you are locked out of your room (i.e. forget your key in your room), contact the La Cienega Housing Office located in building 59 weekdays Monday-Friday from 8am-5pm at (909) 869-5113. A er 5pm during the week (including Friday) and Saturday/Sunday, contact your buildings RA on Duty.

Room Inspections

WHEN YOU FIRST MOVE IN

You will need to complete a Room Inspection via the Housing Portal. This allows for you to report any existing issues/damage (not done by you) to ensure you are not help responsible when first moving in.

An email will be sent with further instructions. You will have 5 days after moving in to complete your Room Inspection.

How To Submit Your Room Inspection

- 1 Log in to the Housing Portal
- 2 Select "Room Inspection"
- 3 Follow the Room Inspection Steps for further information

Room Changes

The online Room Change Request is for residents who wish to find another room/suite. This form will be available on the Housing Portal during specific times through the academic year.

To request a room/suite change, the online request form will be made available on the Housing Portal during business hours Monday-Wednesday of the 8th week of classes

If you know someone who wants to swap spaces with you, both students must submit the form and enter the Bronco ID number of who you are swapping with

Each request will be reviewed by the Housing Office in the order they are received

Room changes will be approved based on the number and types of spaces available

If your request is accepted, you will be contacted by the Housing Office with the room offer and given specific instructions about completing the check-out/check-in process

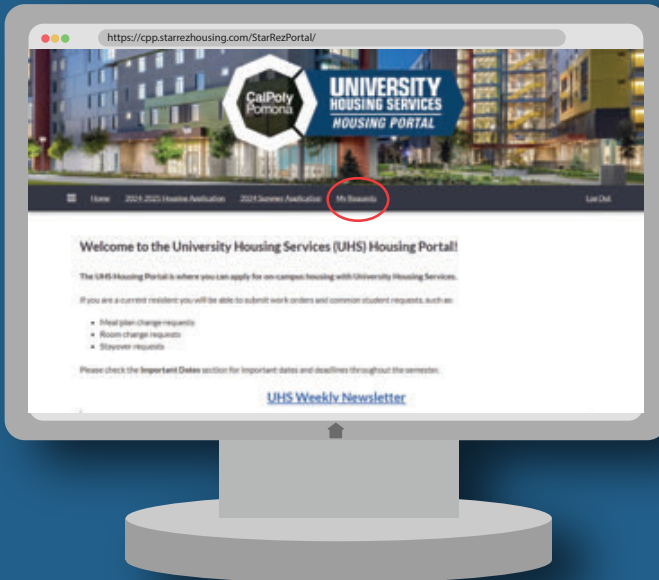

Work Orders

Work orders are used to inform our University Housing team of any issues/concerns in your room or public common spaces such as the restrooms, rec rooms, or study spaces. Work orders range from electrical, plumbing, general maintenance, repairs, etc.

Once a work order is submitted, our Facilities team will address it as soon as possible. Please keep in mind we receive a vast amount of work orders each day. In addition, if a work order is submitted to your room, this gives authorized University Housing Services personally access to your space to address the repair/maintenance.

General Cleanliness

Room Space

As a UHS resident, it is your responsibility to keep your room clean, not our Custodial Team. Our Custodial Team is there to assist in the cleaning of common areas such as rec rooms, study spaces, and bathrooms. Failure to keep your personal space clean could result in professional cleaning and/or pest control at your expense (see 2024-2025 License Agreement for more information.)

Trash

It is your responsibility to take the trash out when it is full to the dumpster located behind each building. Leaving trash bags outside your room will result in documentation.

Common Spaces

Our Custodial Team is there to assist in the cleaning of common spaces including: rec rooms, study spaces, and general use bathrooms. As a UHS resident, it is still your responsibility to clean up after yourself in these shared spaces for the safety of you and your community. If there are any issues in common spaces, you can let the RA on Duty know, or submit the work order yourself.

Kitchen

There is one (1) shared kitchen in each building for resident use, along with one (1) communal refrigerator. It is your responsibility to clean up after you are done cooking, and to throw away any rotten/spoiled food so as to not take up unnecessary space in the refrigerator. If you've checked out pots/pans from the front desk for use, items must be cleaned prior to being returned. Failure to do so will result in being suspended from checking out equipment in the future.

Front Desks

Front Desk Assistants

Each building has their own Front Desk Assistants who are there to assist you during the day starting from 1pm-6pm Monday-Friday. In the event that there is not a Front Desk Assistant at your buildings main desk during the weekday, please contact the Secoya Housing Office at (909) 869-3307 for assistance. After 6pm on weekdays, including Fridays, and all-day Saturday/Sunday, call your RA on Duty.

Equipment Checkout

Each front desk as equipment that can be checked out, all you need is your Bronco ID. Below is a list of some equipment you can rent from the front desks:

- Board games
- Vacuum Cleaners
- Broom
- Pots/Pans/Cooking Utensils

*All cooking equipment must be cleaned prior to returning it to the front desk.

Technology

Internet

You have access via to the CPP network via ethernet ports and/or wifi (eduroam or CPP). Due to the nature of wireless technology connectivity cannot be guaranteed. The residential network has some restrictions on bandwidth, as determined by the campus that can be viewed here.

Router/Hotswitches

Personal wired switches or wireless routers are not allowed. This is a policy which was agreed to when submitting your license agreement for on-campus housing, found in the 2024-2025 License Agreement – “Policies and Regulations” under “Computers and Technology Acceptable Use Policy,” subsections 2 and 5.17.

Philo TV

Included in your housing fee is Philo TV. Philo lets you watch live TV on your TV, computer, phone, or tablet, anywhere on campus. Plus, it lets you record shows for later with your personal Philo DVR. It's TV that's built to fit your life.

- 1 Connect to eduroam wifi or wired connection
- 2 Visit watch.philo.com and click “Log In”
- 3 Enter your Bronco username and password
- 4 Start watching live TV or record shows for later

Getting Involved at UHS

Programs and Events

Throughout the year, your RA will host programs and events for your community! Ask your front desk about upcoming events, look for posted advertisement, and follow @cppuhsreslife on Instagram!

Inter-Hall Council

Getting involved in your community is a great way to make connections. One way to meet people in housing is by joining Inter-Hall Council. Inter-Hall Council (IHC) is an organization that serves residents by advocating for resident needs and planning fun, social programs. Within IHC there are other councils you can join from your community:

- Traditional Halls Council
- Residential Halls Council
- Suites Council

Each council has a President and members that plan fun programming for their communities. For more information on Inter-Hall Council, Hall Council, or any other council, email ihc@cpp.edu and follow @ihc.cpp on Instagram!

Student Leader

University Housing Services offer multiple Student Leader roles each year. Our Student Leader team is a diverse group of individuals with different experiences, backgrounds, ideas, and beliefs, but they all share the common goal. Student Leaders provide advice, support, plan events, advocate for their fellow students and most importantly strive to improve the overall experience for UHS students.

Getting Involved at UHS

myBAR is an online database of all official clubs and organizations on campus. It is where clubs can recruit new members, update and inform current members, and network with other clubs. You can also see what events are happening around campus on a daily basis! See what clubs campus has to offer to get involved!

Centers for Transformation, Retention, Equity, and Empowerment (TREE)

At CPP there are a wide variety of Cultural Centers for you to visit, join, and become involved in however you see fit! Below is a list of our Cultural Centers on Campus:
