Inside Higher Ed (2/7, Weissman) reports, "New data show that fewer than half of community college students who transfer to four-year institutions go on to earn a bachelor's degree, and these poor outcomes are more pronounced among the most vulnerable student populations." The findings were detailed in two new reports, "one focused on community colleges and another on four-year institutions, released Wednesday by the Community College Research Center at Columbia University's Teachers College, the Aspen Institute College Excellence Program and the National Student Clearinghouse Research Center." BRIDGE TRANSFER CRITICAL SUCCESS FACTORS (CSFS) CONSENT FORM

You are being asked to participate in an evaluation study of the BRIDGE program at Cal Poly Pomona (CPP). The survey in which you are being asked to participate is designed to investigate, document, and assess the program and to provide insight into program implementation, operations, and outcomes. The BRIDGE Program is led by the Principal Investigator (PI), Dr. Jeyoung Woo, in the Department of Civil Engineering at CPP. You are being asked to participate in this survey because you are a college student over the age of 18. The Cal Poly Pomona Institutional Review Board has reviewed and approved for conduct this research involving human subjects under protocol IRB 23-003.

Purpose: The purpose of the evaluation is to identify the Critical Success Factors (CSFs) that affect a transfer student's success related to the BRIDGE program. Your decision to participate (or not participate) in the evaluation will not affect your relationship with CPP.

Transfer
Success
Pathway
(TSP @ CPP)

Dual Admissions: Transfer Success Pathway (TSP)

As guided by the Governor's Council for Post-Secondary Education Recovery with Equity report and the Postsecondary Education Trailer Bill (AB 132), the Transfer Success Pathway program will help improve the student transfer experience while addressing potential equity issues as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, issues with academic preparation and other challenges facing high school students.

TSP for the CSU

The new Transfer Success Pathway (TSP) program is designed to increase access to the CSU.

It provides an opportunity to support future transfer students and provides the CSU greater opportunity to establish stronger relationships with students while enrolled at community colleges.

It will also support the CSU in better predicting future transfer demand for specific CSU majors and campuses.

TSP for Students

For Students that have faced academic, financial, or personal hardships that prevented them from attending the CSU, this program will help them get to the CSU to earn their degree.

Beginning August 1, 2023, eligible students can apply to the program to:

- Enter into an agreement with the CSU and receive guaranteed admission to the degree program and campus of their choice (if all requirements are met)
- Receive personalized guidance from CSU representatives to create an educational plan that will help them transfer within three years or less
- Map out their coursework using the CSU Transfer Planner portal (coming soon) to ensure they are on track for their degree

TSP at CPP

TSP @ CPP: Determining Capacity/Reqs

Unimpacted Programs

- 41 unimpacted programs all participating in TSP
- Per policy, unimpacted programs must be open for the entire application with no cap on the number of agreements
- Student will be required to meet the CSU minimum eligibility

High-Demand Unimpacted Programs

- 3 of our 41 unimpacted programs are in high demand
- Limited capacity
- Local vs. non-local cutoffs

Impacted Programs

- 13 of 20 impacted programs participate in TSP
- Limited capacity
- Required supplementary criteria (Higher GPA, Major-specific GPA, Preparatory coursework)

TSP @ CPP: Marketing/Outreach

TSP Invitations

- Denied - program capacity
- Admitted - No Intent
- Did not register/attend Orientation

We invite you to embark on a transformative journey by joining the Transfer Success Pathway \(TSP\) at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona.

What is the Transfer Success Pathway (TSP)?

The Transfer Success Pathway is your key to a seamless transition into Cal Poly Pomona. The new TSP program is designed to increase access to CPP. If you faced academic, financial, or personal hardships that prevented you from attending CPP, this program could help you get to CPP to earn your degree. If you are enrolling in one of California's 116 community colleges this fall you could be eligible for a dual admission program at CPP.

Why Should You Apply to TSP?

Academic Excellence: TSP offers specialized academic advising and support services to ensure you excel in your studies.
 Community: Connect with a diverse and welcoming community of fellow transfer students who share your aspirations.
 Mentorship: Benefit from guidance and mentorship from faculty, staff, and peer mentors who are committed to your success.
 Engagement: Engage in campus activities, leadership opportunities, and networking events to make the most of your university.

Discussion: Guiding Questions

1. How is your community college ensuring students are staying on their TSP track?
2. Are TSP students receiving additional services or benefits, like priority registration, at your community college?
3. What strategies can CPP implement to effectively support these students as they navigate their transfer pathway journey to CPP?
4. What support/guidance is CPP offering to TSP students presently attending community college?
5. How does CPP interact with TSP students at the community college, and with what frequency?
