

The University of Strathclyde:
the place of useful learning

The place of 'useful learning'

Scotland

Glasgow

- Scotland's largest city
- Population of about 1 million people
- Regional hub
- Communications, commerce, services, education, tourism
- 4 universities, colleges, approximately 60,000 students
- European City of Culture, Architecture and UNESCO city of Music
- Excellent arts and cultural scene and world-class museums
- UK's second largest retail centre
- Global connections via 2 international airports
- Commonwealth Games host city 2014
- EAIE Conference host city 2015
- Huge investment in facilities and opportunity to showcase Glasgow and Scotland to the world

Aerial View of Campus

Four Faculties

- Engineering (24%)
- Humanities & Social Sciences (33%)
- Science (20%)
- Strathclyde Business School (23%)

Students and Staff

- 15,000 Full-time students
- 11,000 Undergraduate
- 4,000 Postgraduate
- 16% of our student body are international students
- 34,000 students in continuing education
- 860 Academic Staff
- 400 Research Staff
- 9 teaching centres overseas – Europe, the Gulf and South East Asia

Undergraduate Study Options

- Over 200 degree course combinations
- 4 years for Honours degree
- 5 years for MEngineering, MScience

Students from outside the UK

•1200 international students from 100 countries

- Malaysia
- Singapore
- Canada
- USA
- China
- Indonesia
- Taiwan
- Thailand
- Pakistan
- Nigeria
- Oman
- India
- Egypt

Faculty of Engineering

- “First for Engineering” in Scotland
- Largest Engineering Faculty in Scotland
- Graduate School of Engineering
- 9 academic departments
- Renowned for its close relationship with industry
- Extensive laboratories, IT provision and specialist research centres

Engineering – Departments

- Architecture
- Bioengineering Unit
- Chemical and Process Engineering
- Civil Engineering (David Livingstone Centre for Sustainability - Civil and Architecture)
- Design, Manufacture and Engineering Management (DMEM)
- Electronic and Electrical Engineering (EEE)
- Mechanical Engineering
- National Centre for Prosthetics and Orthotics
- Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering (NAME)

Faculty of Humanities & Social Sciences

- Wide range of courses with awards leading to professional recognition and accreditation by appropriate professional bodies
- Developing the professionals necessary to equip modern societies to succeed at local, national and global levels
- Flexible degree structure
- Staff regularly achieve high ratings in official external ratings and student feedback
- Includes one of Scotland's top law schools and is Scotland's largest provider of initial teacher education

Humanities & Social Sciences – 6 Schools

- Applied Social Sciences
- Education
- Government & Public Policy
- Law
- Humanities
- Psychological Sciences & Health

Strathclyde Business School

Strathclyde Business School

- One of largest Business Schools in Europe
- Top in Scotland by a wide margin
- First full-time MBA in UK - 1966
- 9 teaching departments
- Excellent teaching and high ratings for research
- Triple accreditation; AMBA, EQUIS and AACSB accredited
- Over 30 one-year taught Masters courses
- Research opportunities available in all departments
- Open learning MBA has won Queen's Award for Export Achievement

SBS – Departments

- Accounting and Finance
- Economics
- European Policies Research Centre
- Management
(formerly Graduate School of Business)
- Management Science
- Human Resource Management
- Hunter Centre for Entrepreneurship
- Marketing

Faculty of Science

Faculty of Science

- 5 academic departments
- Multidisciplinary study across traditional departmental boundaries
- Widespread contact with industry
- Purpose built accommodation including the Strathclyde Institute for Pharmacy & Biomedical Sciences (SIPBS)

Science – Departments

- Strathclyde Institute of Pharmacy and Biomedical Sciences (SIBPS)
(physiology, bioscience, immunology, pharmacology, pharmaceutical sciences)
- Pure and Applied Chemistry
(including centre for Forensic Science)
- Computer and Information Sciences
- Mathematics and Statistics
- Physics

Housing

- Over 1400 places on and off campus
- All rooms networked
- Accommodation Office assists students with all their housing needs
- International Exchange students guaranteed University housing.
- Large choice of private accommodation in Glasgow

Student Experience and Enhancement Service

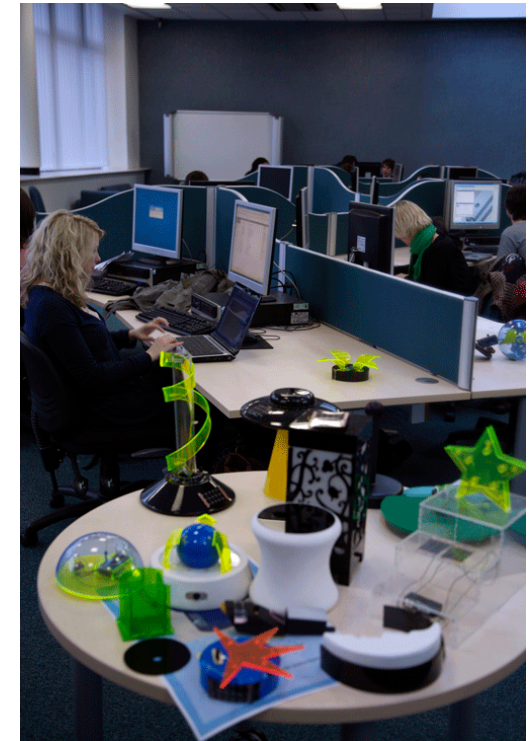

- Full-time Student Advisers
- Award winning Careers Service
- Over 30 international student societies
- Integrated welcome/orientation programme
- Social programme throughout semester

In summary

- Relevant research
- Innovative teaching
- Accessible education
- Leading international technological university
- Excellent industrial and commercial links
- Innovation and entrepreneurship
- The place of useful learning

University of
Strathclyde
Glasgow